

PARK RULES IN MUELLER

- Reservations and permission must be provided for any groups of over 25 people.
- Park users may not use a court or field designated for another sport, e.g., the volleyball courts in Branch Park can't be used for soccer.
- No swimming allowed, excluding designated pool areas at Ella Wooten Pool & John Gaines Pool
- On hike and bike trails, cyclists yield to joggers and walkers; joggers yield to walkers.
- Motor vehicles are not allowed on hike-and-bike trails or sidewalks, except for motorized wheelchairs.
- Park users may not carry or possess a weapon or firearm while in the park, except under state and federal law.
- Park users should not use offensive language or make unreasonable noises, discharge weapons or engage in gestures or conduct in a park that would be offensive to a person of ordinary sensibility.
- Users may not abandon vehicles or other personal property in the park.
- Park users may not sell, rent or offer free goods or services, or place a stand, cart or vehicle in a park for commercial use, unless permitted by the POA or the master developer to do so.
- Park users must keep animals under confinement or direct control (e.g., on a leash) except in the Branch Park dog run. A leash is still required to walk dogs to and from the dog run.
- Park users shall remove waste left by an animal under the user's care and shall properly dispose of the waste in an appropriate waste receptacle.
- Park users are not allowed to have pets in the pools and/or the Branch Park interactive waterscape.
- Livestock, including horses and ponies, are not permitted.

- A park user may not disperse or dispose of cremation remains in a park without authorization.
- Parks users may not set up a slackline in a park without authorization.
- Park users may temporarily affix a hammock, but only to trees that are more than one foot in diameter and not a Heritage tree as defined by the City of Austin; and the user must place some form of fabric between the tree and the hammock tie to protect the bark.
- Remote control models are allowed in open areas of the park so long as they do not disrupt the enjoyment of the park by other users; remote control models are not allowed on trails, sidewalks, sports fields or courts, playscapes or water features.
- All wildlife is protected: park users may not harm, harass, hunt or remove an animal, including mammals, fish, insects, birds or reptiles. Park users may fish but must release the fish back into the pond immediately after they are caught.
- Plant life is also protected: park users may not intentionally injure, thrash or remove any whole or partial live plant or fungus.
- Park users can collect fruits and nuts on the ground but not pick the fruits or nuts off the trees, unless clearly posted or authorized.
- Park users may not light, build or maintain a fire in a park, except within the BBQ grills provided or after an approved event request for the Lake Park fire pit. During periods of extreme fire hazard, the POA may prohibit or restrict fires in designated areas.
- Park users may not camp in parks.
- Park users may not advertise, market, or engage in any solicitation activities, including survey-taking, or affix any promotional material to park property without authorization.
- Mueller is open to the public and sees tens of thousands of visitors to its parks, trails and green spaces each year. To maintain a welcoming environment, Mueller does not host events that have the potential to impact a wide range of beliefs or values. These types of events may include religious ceremonies or services, gatherings that could incite violence or contradict Mueller's goals, and groups that present music, movies, speeches or other broadcasts that may be offensive to a child-aged audience. This list is not comprehensive, and this policy is always evolving and may change periodically.
